Benefits of the RBC Bank Deposit Program:

If the Owner specifies percentage (or fractional) shares for the primary Beneficiaries and if some but not all such Beneficiaries fail to survive the Owner, the Account will be divided among the surviving primary Beneficiaries in proportion to the relative percentage (or fractional) shares of each, unless the owner has stipulated a Per Stirpes designation.

AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE CONTROVERSIES

This agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement the parties agree as follows:

- All parties to this agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party’s ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
- The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration in some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this agreement.

The Client agrees that any controversy arising out of or relating directly or indirectly to this Agreement, or any investment by the Client hereunder, or with respect to transactions of any kind executed by or with RBC Capital Markets, LLC (“RBC CM”), Member NYSE/ FINRA/SIPC, any introducing broker for the Account (if applicable), or each of their respective officers, directors, agents, employees, or affiliate, or with respect to this Agreement or any other agreements entered in to with RBC CM or the introducing broker (if applicable) relating to the Accounts with RBC CM or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act and in accordance with the rules, then in effect, of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Notice preliminary to, in conjunction with or incident to arbitration, may be sent to the Client by mail and personal service is hereby waived. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any predispute arbitration against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (i) the request for class certification is denied; (ii) the class is decertified; or (iii) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

RBC CORRESPONDENT SERVICES (RBC CS), a division of RBC Capital Markets, LLC, Member NYSE/FINRA/SIPC

In order to better service your financial needs our firm has engaged an independent member of the New York Stock Exchange and other major exchanges as our Clearing Agent. Accordingly, your account and all regulations governing it may fall within the control of both firms pursuant to a written agreement between the Clearing Agent and us. Under this agreement, the Clearing Agent will: provide cashiering services; monitor compliance of credit according to applicable rules, regulations and policies; prepare or provide information for transaction confirmations and periodic account statements; and provide for the dissemination of proxy, tender offer, and other similar shareholder's materials. In addition, the Clearing Agent may provide, upon our specific instructions, order execution and/or certificate clearance. However, the Clearing Agent will not be involved with or have responsibility for decisions regarding transactions in your account. While you continue to be a customer of our firm, the opening and approval of accounts and the entry of orders and instructions regarding the deposit or withdrawal of securities or money for your account must be handled by us. We will continue to be responsible for all activities in connection with your account and inquiries regarding your account should be directed to us. Information about our Clearing Agent is available upon request.

SEC ORDER HANDLING DISCLOSURE - SEC Rule 606 As adopted in November 2000, SEC Rule 606 requires all broker dealers that route orders in equity and option securities to make available quarterly reports that present a general overview of their routing practices. As stated above, Spratt Global Resource Investments Ltd. (Spratt Global) is an introducing broker dealer. Transactions effected by Spratt Global are executed and settled through our Clearing Agent, RBC CS, a division of RBC Capital Markets Corp., and also through third party broker dealers. Being that RBC CS makes the routing decisions concerning the customer orders routed through them without regard to the identity of Spratt Global as its introducing broker dealer, Spratt Global feels that RBC CS is in the best position to prepare a quarterly report that reflects its routing practices on our behalf. You can review RBC CS' SEC Order Handling Disclosures at: <http://external.s3.com/rule606/rbcwm/>. For historical information, visit <http://www.tagaudit.com/do/display?page=Rule606::Report>.

PROHIBITED ACCOUNTS Pursuant to US regulations issued under Section 311 of the USA PATRIOT Act, 31 CFR 103.192, we prohibit customers from establishing, maintaining, administering or managing an account for, or on behalf of the financial institutions listed under this section: http://www.fincen.gov/statutes_regs/patriot/section311.html. The regulations also require us to notify you that your correspondent account with our firm may not be used to provide the financial institutions listed under Section 311 with access to our firm. If we become aware that these institutions are indirectly using the correspondent account you hold at our firm, we will be required to take appropriate steps to prevent such access, including terminating your account.

BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLANNING Spratt Global has developed a Business Continuity Plan (BCP) on how we will respond to events that significantly disrupt our business. Since the timing and impact of disasters and disruptions is unpredictable, we will have to be flexible in responding to actual events as they occur. With that in mind, we are providing you with this information on our plan.

Contacting Us If after a significant business disruption you cannot contact us as you usually do at 800-477-7853 or 760-444-5254, you should call our emergency number 773-209-4777, alternative fax 760-683-6578 or go to our website at www.sprattglobal.com.

Our Business Continuity Plan We plan to quickly recover and resume business operations after a significant business disruption and respond by safeguarding our employees and property, making a financial and operational assessment protecting the firm's books and records, and allowing our customers to transact business. In short, our BCP is designed to permit our firm to resume operations as quickly as possible, given the scope and severity of the significant business disruption.

Our BCP addresses: data backup and recovery; all mission critical systems; financial and operational assessments; alternative communications with customers, employees, and regulators; alternate physical location of employees; critical supplier, contractor, bank and counter-party impact; regulatory reporting; and assuring our customers prompt access to their funds and securities if we are unable to continue our business. Our clearing firm, RBC Capital Markets, LLC, backs up our important records in a geographically separate area. While every emergency situation poses unique problems based on external factors, such as time of day and the severity of the disruption, we have been advised by our clearing firm that its objective is to restore its own operations and be able to complete existing transactions and accept new transactions and payments within the same business day. Your orders and requests for funds and securities could be delayed during this period.

Varying Disruptions Significant business disruptions can vary in their scope, such as only our firm, a single building housing our firm, the business district where our firm is located, the city where we are located, or the whole region. Within each of these areas, the severity of the disruption can also vary from minimal to severe. In a disruption to only our firm or a building housing our firm, we will transfer our operations to a local site when needed and expect to recover and resume business within few hours. In a disruption affecting our business district, city, or region, we will transfer our operations to a site outside of the affected area, and expect to recover and resume business within the same business day. In either situation, we plan to continue in business, transfer critical operations to our parent company Sprott Inc., as necessary, and provide information through our web site www.sprottglobal.com, including contract and critical transaction processing information. If the significant business disruption is so severe that it prevents us from returning to business within a reasonable period of time, or ever, we will take all necessary actions to assure our customer's prompt access to their funds and securities.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT By entering into this Agreement, you agree that all controversies between Sprott Global or our principals or agents and you or your agents arising out of or concerning your accounts, orders or transactions, or the construction, performance, or breach of this or any other agreement between us, whether entered into before or after the date an account is opened shall be determined by arbitration before FINRA.

You also represent that you understand the terms of the arbitration clauses as follows:

- a. Arbitration is final and binding on the parties.
- b. The parties are waiving their right to seek remedies in court, including the right to jury trials, but not the right to counsel.
- c. Pre-arbitration discovery is generally more limited than and different from court proceedings.
- d. The arbitrators' award is not required to include factual findings or legal reasoning and the parties' right to appeal or seek modifications of rulings by the arbitrators is strictly limited.
- e. The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.

Notice preliminary to, in conjunction with, or incident to arbitration may be sent to you by mail, and personal service is waived. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action, who is a member of a putative class, who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until the class certification is denied, the class is decertified, or the customer is excluded from the class by court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, and shall inure to the benefit of Sprott Global's successors and assigns, and shall be binding on the undersigned, the undersigned's representatives, attorneys in-fact, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns. The undersigned has read and accepted the terms of this Agreement.

Investment Advisory Agreement
(Discretionary)

THIS INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into on _____, 201__ by _____ _____ ("Client") and Spratt Asset Management USA Inc. ("SAM USA"), a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"). Client desires to open an account with SAM USA through which SAM USA will direct and manage specified assets of the Client. A description of the services to be provided and the parties providing the service are set forth below.

1. SERVICES.

A. Advisory Services.

Client authorizes SAM USA to direct the investment and re-investment of the securities, cash and other assets (collectively the "Assets") in the Client's account (the "Account") on a discretionary basis, in accordance with investment strategy as selected by the client and set forth in the Managed Account Strategy Description or Financial Advisor Service Agreement (Schedule B), and pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

B. New Account Application; Investment Programs.

The New Account Application sets forth a description of Client's assets, investment time horizon, risk profile, net worth, earnings, and other pertinent financial information. Client understands, acknowledges and represents it is aware that SAM USA will rely on the information contained in the New Account Application in managing the assets in the Account. Client will promptly advise SAM USA of any changes or modifications to the New Account Application.

Schedule B sets forth the investment strategy with the applicable investment objectives and limitations. The Client agrees that at any given time, all or a portion of Assets in the Account may consist of cash or cash equivalents. Furthermore, Client agrees that dividends and interest earned on investments shall be paid directly into the Account and may be treated as cash available for investment in the Account.

2. CUSTODIAL AND EXECUTION CLEARANCE SERVICES.

A. General.

Client hereby directs that all securities purchase and sale orders for the Account be directed by SAM USA through the Client's choice of available brokers or to be executed through other broker-dealers. The Client may pay any fees, commissions, or other compensation for this service however a ticket charge payable to the broker may apply for account servicing (such as for handling charges, trade platforms, remote access, securities quotes, etc.) which is passed through to SAM USA clients.

Currently SAM USA Clients may utilize either RBC Capital Markets, LLC or Interactive Brokers as (“Custodian”). Either registered broker-dealer, will act as the custodian of the Account in a separate account under Client’s name. The RBC’s address is c/o RBC Correspondent Services, Attn: Correspondent Relations, 60 South 6th Street, Minneapolis, MN, 55402. IB’s address is Interactive Brokers LLC One Pickwick Plaza-2nd Fl. Greenwich, CT 06830

B. Allocation of Brokerage

SAM USA will select the executing brokers, dealers and market participants (collectively, “brokers”) primarily on the basis on their execution capability, financial stability, reputation, access to the market for the securities being traded and the broker’s trading expertise, and the research, brokerage or other services provided by such brokers. In selecting brokers to execute transactions, SAM USA need not solicit competitive bids and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available commission cost. Consistent with obtaining the “best execution” of a transaction, SAM USA may also obtain research, brokerage and other services provided by the broker for commissions paid in connection with the transaction (i.e., “soft dollars”). It is not SAM USA’s practice to negotiate “execution only” commission rates with every broker, and thus the Account may be deemed to be paying for research, brokerage or other services provided by brokers in recognition of the commissions such brokers receive from the Account, even if such services or advice do not benefit the Account. The Client recognizes that the brokers willing to provide the foregoing benefits to SAM USA may not be the broker or brokers which would charge the lowest rate of commission in effecting transactions for the Account. Accordingly, the Account may pay brokers that provide these services higher commissions, mark-ups, fees, costs or other compensation than the Account might pay to other brokers, dealers or market participants that do not provide these services, based on SAM USA’s recognition of the value of the research, brokerage and other services being provided. SAM USA will limit the use of soft dollars to obtain research and brokerage services which constitute research and brokerage within the meaning of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

3. TRADING AUTHORIZATION.

SAM USA may, in its sole discretion purchase, sell, exchange, convert and trade the securities and other investments (“Securities”) in Client’s Account in accordance with the program as selected by the Client and as set forth in Schedule B. This authorization shall remain in effect and shall be relied upon until terminated by written notice as described herein. SAM USA is not authorized to withdraw or transfer any Assets out of the Account without written authorization from the Client.

4. FEES AND EXPENSES.

A. Advisory Fee; Performance Fee (if applicable).

The Adviser’s annual fee for investment management services provided under this agreement shall be based upon a percentage of the market value of the Assets under management in accordance with the fee schedule selected by the Client in Schedule B. The Client shall pay SAM USA an asset-based fee (the “Advisory Fee”) and may pay a performance fee, if applicable (“Performance Fee”), as selected in Schedule B. The Advisory Fee rate will be payable quarterly. Assets in each account, including cash and cash equivalents, (but not below $0.00), will be charged the Advisory Fee selected for the account. The term “quarter” as used herein shall mean a calendar quarter. Accounts may be billed in advance or in arrears as set out in Schedule B of the investment strategy(ies) as selected by the Client.

If the investment strategy bills in advance, the Advisory Fee for the initial quarterly period shall be prorated for the duration of the quarter remaining, based upon the funding date of the Account and the net asset value of Assets deposited in the Account on that date. The account value as of the last business day of the quarter shall be applied to the fee set out in Schedule B. The Advisory Fee shall be paid soon after the account is funded. Thereafter the Advisory Fee shall be assessed at the beginning of each successive quarter. Subsequent deposits may be assessed a prorated fee.

If the selected strategy bills in arrears, the Advisory Fee for the quarter may be prorated to take into account the number of days the account was funded for that initial quarter. The account value as of the last business day of the quarter shall be applied to the fee set out in Schedule B. Thereafter the Advisory fee shall be assessed based on the account value at quarter end.

In the event of termination of this Agreement, Client will be entitled to a prorated refund of any pre-paid Advisory Fee (if applicable when the account is billed in advance) based upon the number of days remaining in the quarter after the Termination Date (as defined below), except as set forth below under "Termination". Likewise, for accounts billed in arrears, Client acknowledges and agrees to pay any prorated Advisory Fee due based on the number of days elapsed in the quarter prior to the Termination date. Client also acknowledges that SAM USA may charge other advisory clients different fees, which may be higher or lower than the fees charged with respect to the Account for similar services.

B. Expenses

The Client shall bear the expenses of the Account which may include brokerage commissions, issue and transfer taxes, custodial fees, bank service fees, transfer agent fees, ticket charges (for account servicing such as for handling charges, trade platforms, remote access, securities quotes, etc.) private placement processing fees (if applicable), and any other reasonable expenses (including legal fees) related to the purchase, sale or transmittal of assets of the Account.

C. Authorization to Debit Account.

Fees will be deducted from the Account quarterly within eleven (11) business days of the beginning of the quarter for which said fees are incurred. Client hereby authorizes Custodian to pay the Advisory Fee due to SAM USA directly from the Account. All such fees will be clearly noted on Client's statements. It is agreed by Client and SAM USA that the Advisory Fee will be payable from the redemption or withdrawal (which Client hereby authorizes) of Client's shares of any money market account, cash, cash equivalents, balances in any money market fund or funds held as cash reserves in a non-interest bearing account with the Custodian including Bank Deposit Program funds. In the event that Client account balances are insufficient to pay Advisory Fees, Client hereby authorizes SAM USA to liquidate securities in the Account. Client may further authorize Advisory Fees to be debited from a separate account owned by Client by completing and submitting to Adviser or Custodian a letter of authorization.

Client understands and acknowledges that SAM USA and its affiliates may act as an investment adviser or broker to other customers, accounts, or pooled investment vehicles (“Other Accounts”) and may give advice with respect to any of such Other Accounts which may differ from the advice given, or the timing or nature of action taken, with respect to the Client, and may engage in transactions or cause or advise Other Accounts to engage in transactions that may differ from or be identical to the transactions engaged in by the Account. In addition, SAM USA is affiliated with and shares office space with Sprott Global, a registered broker-dealer. Certain employees of SAM USA are also employees of Sprott Global. SAM USA may have a conflict of interest in that trades for Sprott Global client accounts may be aggregated with trades for SAM USA client accounts, which may have the effect of limiting the amount of stock allotted to SAM USA clients.
